The Spanish brand has succeeded in over 40 years in the international market of contemporary aluminum design furniture. The brand is clearly in the world of industrial design and its philosophy is centered on two founding pillars: the quest for quality as a primary requirement; aluminum as the base material of all products. The different designers who make up the creative cell focus on outdoor furniture that beautifully adorns the terraces, gardens, pool-house like the Salvora chaise longue, designer Antoni Tarres, or the Oyyo aluminum armchair by Nico Smeenk. It is in full respect of the external environment that the brand operates, which, beyond the simple principle, applies rules of waste reduction and use of recycled products in its manufacturing processes. Quality, service and respect for the environment make Indecasa a brand with safe and modern values.
